

History 20: World Issues

C. Power and Authority – Investigate the political paradigms, processes and structures of power and the implications for individuals, nations and the world.

PA 20.1 – Apply characteristics of Authoritarian and Totalitarian political paradigms to regimes of the 20th century.

PA 20.2 – Analyze the impact of political paradigms on the relationship between individual rights and collective rights.

PA 20.3 – Analyze the delicate balance that exists in political decision making between national security and collective security.

- Alliances
- International Organizations

PA 20.4 – Assess the impact of economic and/or political instability of nations to the world.

- Rise of radical political movements/paradigms

Essential Question:

1. Which is superior – authoritarian or democratic style of decision making?

