

History 20: World Issues

B. Interactions and Interdependence – Examine the global interactions and interdependence of individuals, societies, cultures and nations.

IN 20.1 - Explain how issues that have global consequences require global involvement in seeking solutions.

IN 20.2 - Analyze how world conflict is rooted in a multitude of interdependent factors.

IN 20.3 - Analyze the interplay among the social, economic, political and cultural domains within a society and describe how changes within one of the domains impact the others.

IN 20.4 - Analyze the relationship between a distinct population's (Ethnic Nationalism) aspirations to secure decision making powers and the society as a whole, as well as countries abroad.

Essential Questions

1. Should nations possess the moral right to impose their political values on another nation by intruding upon its sovereignty?
 2. Should domestic considerations take precedence over external and vice versa?
- 